

Orange County Scottish Rite

Orient of California, Southern Jurisdiction

Personal Representative

Dear Brethren: On behalf of our Orange County Valley, I would like to welcome you to 2021. I know that last year was a very challenging time for many of us, but with the arrival of a New Year, our hopes are high. With the arrival of the vaccine, we hope to once again return to a new normal, one which will allow for us to gather and celebrate our affection for Scottish Rite. That day will come and we are looking forward to getting there soon.

To begin, I would like to recognize our 2020 officers for devoting their time for the good of our Valley and our fraternity. To each of them, our sincere gratitude for their efforts during what turned out to be a very challenging time. As our 2020 Venerable Master, brother James Cervantes pointed out in his December newsletter article, although we faced so many challenges last year, our Valley members learned very quickly how to overcome and most importantly, learned how to remain together and strong. Thank you, Venerable Bro. James Cervantes, for these great words and for helping our Valley overcome and remain strong.

Please make the time to reach out to our 2020 offices and thank them for their commitment and service, I am certain it will be greatly appreciated.

In 2021 we welcome a new line of leaders who are excited to make a significant impact in our Valley. First, congratulations to Hon. Mike Selix, 32°, KCCH, for being elected as our Venerable Master in the Lodge of Perfection. I am certain Hon. Mike will do a superb job in leading our Valley this year and in helping us grow. Also, congratulations to brother Anthony Arismendi, 32°, for being elected as Wise Master in the Chapter Rose Croix, Brother Diego Verduzco, 32°, for being elected as Commander in the Council of Kadosh, and Brother Stephen Carney, 32°, for being elected Master of Kadosh in the Consistory. Our Valley looks forward to your good work and continuing dedication to our craft.

Until further notice and to remain compliant with the state mandate, our Valley will continue to hold the Valley Updates via Zoom on a monthly basis, at 5:30PM on a pre-determined Monday night. Also to provide further light in Masonry, our Master Craftsman education meeting will continue to be scheduled for 5:00pm prior to the Valley Update via Zoom. Brother Andrew Todd, 32°, has agreed to lead this effort once again as Director of the Masonic Education Program and also remain as Editor of our Newsletter. I know that 2020 presented various challenges in maintaining the Distinguished Speaker Series, but I am sure that Bro. Todd will be working outside the box this year in the creation of the 2021 schedule, so we can resume this wonderful program via Zoom. Thank you brother Todd, for your time and dedication to our Valley. Please feel free to send suggestions on possible speakers to Brother Todd, as these initiatives remain central to our effort of making our Valley stronger.

I would like to thank Ill. Brother David Kussman, 33°, for helping me during the last couple of years as Assistant to the PR. He was an invaluable asset to me and to our Valley. Although he is unable to perform this duty going forward, he remains a strong advocate and supporter of our Valley. We wish our Ill. Brother a great journey and much success in his role with the York Rite.

We would like to also recognize Hon. Brother David Frias, the Board of Directors of the Language Center and our service partner, Chapman University for leading and helping overcome all challenges presented to our Center last year. Because of their efforts, our Center was able to provide both in person and remote speech services to the children and the families in need of our critical services. I am certain that under the leadership of Hon. Brother David our Center will continue to thrive in 2021.

Please remember, for those active in Blue Lodges, continue to enthusiastically promote the Orange County Scottish Rite every time you visit your Lodge. Keep working by presenting petitions, especially knowing that our education program is available. We all know that recruiting new members has been a challenge for many Valleys, but if we make the effort to recruit, I am certain that it will make a big difference in improving our membership and fellowship.

As you know, petitions are available at our main site, just visit www.ocscottishrite.org, and from the "Membership" menu option, select the "Joining the Scottish Rite" page. Under the "Membership / Affiliation Applications" section, click the "Application for Degrees" link, and print the application.

As your Personal Representative, it is my commitment to work hard in reinvigorating our fraternity and improving our communication, so we can increase our membership and fellowship, all critical to our sustainability and success. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to email or call. My cell number is 714-600-6914, and my email is frosario@ocscottishrite.org.

I look forward to working with you and making a big difference in 2021.

Fraternally yours,

Frankie Rosario, 33°

Happy New Year Brethren. I am honored to have been elected to represent our valley as this year's Wise Master. Much like you, I am glad to put 2020 in the archives and begin a fresh new chapter in 2021.

With that said, it is also my personal belief that nothing goes to waste. Everything that has come to pass serves as another step in the Great Architect's plan. All of the trials and tribulations, overwhelming as they

New Beginnings

Hello brethren! Allow me to introduce myself, I am Stephen Carney from Newport-Mesa #604 in Newport Beach. I have a passion for masonic knowledge, especially in esoteric studies. However, in order to keep my portions of this newsletter on the level, I won't be diving deep on any topics, rather I plan to give my brothers bits of knowledge from various resources where you can elect to continue the research if it interests you.

Our discussion topic this month is New Beginnings and I thought it fitting to acknowledge what we've all been going through for the past ten months and are likely to continue to endure over the next ten months. When our world was rocked by a new virus, many things changed – some good, some bad. Many of us started 2020 with huge goals only to be devastated because we did not know how we would accomplish them given the consequences and obstacles in our way because of the pandemic. Some people pivoted and leveraged the internet to continue their mission. Some people gave up. And still others found alternative paths forward.

A lot of us create goals or “resolutions” for a new year, however, according to clinical psychologist Joseph J. Luciani, “most resolutions fail due to sabotage caused by a lack of self-discipline.” Now that we know what causes our failure we can do better next time. So, as you all sit with a blank canvas in front of you for 2021, I challenge you all to write down what December 31, 2021 would look like for you if you had a magic wand. For me, it's my family healthy and safe, with the ability to interact with people as we did before this virus, and to understand the world around me on a deeper level. I know there are going to be setbacks that I cannot control, especially with regards to the ability to interact as we once did. However, I am choosing to focus my energy on the things I can control, like my understanding of the world. When I have setbacks, I vow to acknowledge the setback and do better immediately.

Lastly, I feel like an excerpt from A Bridge to Light found in the discussion of the 31° can bring about the right mindset to have going into a new year with an ongoing pandemic:

"To aim at the best but be content with the best possible is true wisdom. To insist on the absolute right, and throw out of the calculation the important and all-controlling element of necessity, is the folly of a mere dreamer."

Happy New Year to all and I look forward to interacting with you all at our virtual meetings!

Stephen Carney, 32°
Master of Kadosh, Consistory

Commander of Kadosh

Hello Brethren: Happy New Year to all of you and your families. My name is Diego Verduzco, Past Master of Newport Mesa #604 in Newport Beach California. I am proud and honored to serve our Valley this year in any capacity I can. Although we face many challenges ahead, both, as a fraternity and as individuals, I always go back to that simple lesson we were taught, that time, patience, and perseverance conquers all. Some days more than others I must remind myself of these wise words and push forward. So too likewise, as a fraternity should we challenge ourselves to continue pushing forward during these turbulent times.

I was personally drawn to Masonry for its rich history and in pursuit of the inner mysteries. What I found and created were unbreakable bonds and sincere love and affection that will go one with me beyond my time here on this earth. Joining and participating in the Scottish Rite seemed only natural in my personal quest for light and I'm extremely proud to say that I am a member of the Orange Valley. Having the privilege to travel to other Valleys in this state I am confident in saying that the work that is being done here is exceptional and getting better year after year.

I sincerely hope that things can go back to a familiar place soon. To meet in person, share a meal, converse on infinite topics, all these and more. As the clock hit 12 on New Years Eve bringing 2020 to a close and 2021 to its start, I said to myself:

"For all that I personally have to be angry about, to want to cast blame on anyone or anything for, I have so much more to be grateful for and to look forward to."

So Brethren and friends, let us look at all of these challenges as opportunities. Opportunities to be better, to find more light and to be the light.

Thank you and see you all soon.

Diego Verduzco, 32°

Commander, Council of Kadosh

General Secretary

Brethren: A very Happy New Year to all of the Brothers of the Valley of Orange County. May 2021 be the year in which normality returns to our lives. The Valley office was busy in the last 3 months of the 2020 with dues payments. We want to thank the Brethren for the generosity shown in adding contributions to their dues payments. Our Childhood Language Center, our Almoner, and our Orange County Scottish Rite Foundation all benefit greatly from your fraternal charity.

In January, we will be having our annual Installation of Officers. The exact date and time of this virtual Zoom event have yet to be determined. You will receive an email with all of the pertinent information as soon as we have it. Please make a point of attending this ceremony, you will not regret it.

Also, you will receive an email with a link to attend our virtual Valley meeting in January. Finally, we wish a healthy and prosperous New Year to all Scottish Rite Masons and your families.

Sincerely & Fraternally,

Language Center News

Welcome to the RiteCare Language Center of Orange County! The Language Center was busy right up to the end of the year. We finished the year feeling so grateful for all of you who continue to believe in our cause and support our efforts. We hope and pray that you will all stay safe and healthy as we start 2021!

During our final visit with our in-person clients we took the opportunity to add some fun and enjoy their beautiful smiles. Decorating Christmas cookies is always a fun activity. The Chapman student clinicians had a great time with the kids creating these yummy treats!

In years past we celebrated Christmas with the Language Center families during our December Stated meeting which included a visit from Santa Claus. Our Secret Scottish Rite Santa still managed to remember the children who attend the Language Center, even with all that is happening.

Our Secret Santa directed his Elves to safely provide gifts for all these kids. COVID was not going to ruin Christmas! Each child who attended the Language Center for in person therapy received a wrapped present. The smiles were so big!

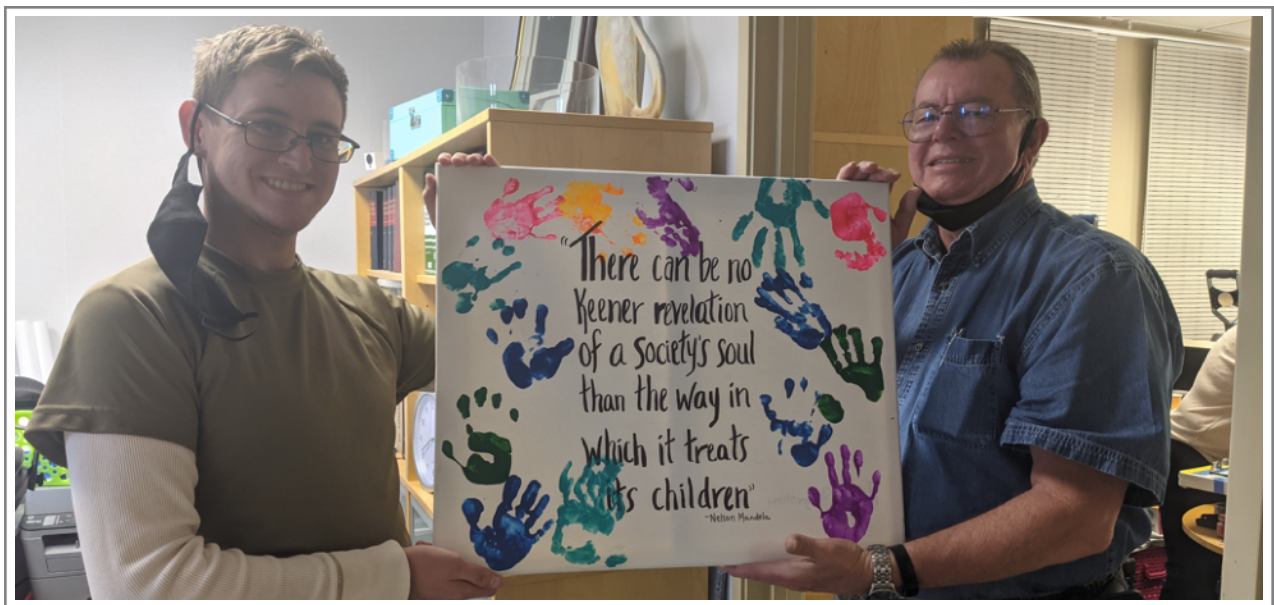

Secret Santa even remembered the children who attend Teletherapy! For these kids Secret Santa directed his Elves to send Target gift cards to all these children so they could still have a present at Christmas.

The Joy of Christmas is still alive at the Orange County Language Center!

Our final act at the Language Center this year was to remember a special supporter of the Language Center, Ted Segerstrom. The Chapman University

Team and the children created a beautiful piece of art that we could use to say thank you and remind everyone that we all have special people in our lives.

Ted Segerstrom and the Segerstrom Family continue to believe in our mission and play an important part in helping all children to become great communicators. With their support so many beautiful children are now able to enjoy the Gift of Voice.

One painting was delivered to Ted Segerstrom and the other painting will always hang in the lobby of the RiteCare Language Center of Orange county.

During these difficult times it is uplifting to know that your Language Center can still make a difference in a child's life. We are so very proud to help these children become great communicators!

Senior Warden

Happy New Year to all my Scottish Rite Brothers. It seems right to start the New Year with a new attitude, a new personal commitment, turn our dreams into new actions. Now is the time to dust off the past and pick a new direction. Mark Twain said, "The secret of getting ahead is getting started."

Change is coming even if we don't want new things to happen. This darn Covid virus is still with us and this makes it hard for us to start new things... but we can't give up. We have to find a safe way to bring some newness into our lives. Ideally, we want to see something new when we look at ourselves in the mirror at the end of the year!

I'm excited to be the new Senior Warden in our lodge and learn more about this role. I look forward to someday attending a meeting in person again (hopefully this happens). I pray we all will receive the new Covid vaccine soon. Please reach out to a Brother that you haven't seen in a while. Ask them to join the Zoom meeting so we can all catch up.

Best wishes,

David Frias 32° KCCH

New! Masonic Book Club

The Scottish Rite is pleased to announce the first volume of the reactivated Masonic Book Club is ready for pre-publication purchase! The 392-page volume will be The Perfect Ceremonies of Craft Masonry and the Holy Royal Arch. The Perfect Ceremonies are the lineal ancestors of the official Emulation ritual and lectures. The book will include marbled covers, a satin ribbon, and rubricated title pages.

For more information, please visit the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry website.

Master Craftsman Program

As you know, our Master Craftsman Study Group will not be meeting in person this month. That does not excuse us from scholarly study, however! On the contrary, with extra time on your hands at home, I strongly encourage you to continue your journey in Masonic education. Venerable brother James Cervantes and I are here to answer any questions and guide you. If you have questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to either of us by e-mail:

Andrew Todd, 32° : atodd@ocscottishrite.org

James Cervantes, 32° : jcervantes@ocscottishrite.org

If you'd like to participate or are looking for information about the program, please prepare by visiting the website for information about the books and other information to get you started:

The Master Craftsman Program

For those unaware, the Master Craftsman is a by-mail correspondence course. Each participant is required to do some scholarly reading in advance and complete a written quiz which is mailed to the Supreme Council for grading. As each quiz is completed, a new one is sent and the program progresses. The course consists of 7 quizzes, after completion of which the successful participant will receive a certificate and a lapel pin.

SCOTTISH+RITE
SYMBOLIC+LODGE

The Scottish Rite Master Craftsman: Symbolic Lodge course will familiarize students with aspects of the development of Blue Lodge Masonry and explore some of its developing symbolism. This will reveal that the “High Degrees” began to develop soon after formation of the Premier Grand Lodge (1717). Albert Pike’s book, Esoterika: The Symbolism of the Blue Degrees of Freemasonry, along with Arturo de Hoyos’ Scottish Rite Ritual Monitor & Guide (3d edition) will be used to demonstrate a rational and philosophical interpretation for much of what is found in Craft Masonry.

Study with us on Zoom

We will be meeting in the “virtual classroom” on Zoom this month. Join us on Monday, January 11th at 5:00pm as we continue our progress through the Master Craftsman program. Stay tuned for an email invite, coming soon.

If you’re just getting started we can also help you with Quizzes #1 - 3. You can also reach out to me directly for information and access to our Facebook group.

Thanks to all our brothers for your interest and participation. I’ll see you in the classroom!

From the Editor

I'd like to express my thanks again to the heads of body for contributing their excellent and thoughtful articles this month and for doing so in a timely fashion.
