Greetings Brothers!

Some of you may not be aware that our Valley has a philanthropic entity that promotes and supports charitable Orange County Masonic endeavors. It is your Orange County Scottish Rite Foundation. (formally known as the Orange County Masonic Memorial Foundation). Your foundation is led by a Board of Trustees composed of 11 members. They are: 6 appointed members, the 4 Heads of Bodies and the PR. Each year, your Foundation awards 2 scholarships, of $2,500 each, to worthy recipients who have a tie to Masonry in Orange County. The recipient must be a member of an OC Masonic organization or his/her parent or grandparent. Scholarship applications may be found on the OCSR web page OCScottishrite.org (2019 submission deadline is March 15.) Additionally, your Foundation supports our Orange County Rite Care Childhood Language Center with an annual donation. These annual donations vary depending on OCSRFI ROI to insure sustainability. I would encourage any Brother with an interest in our mission to consider becoming involved as a Board member or contributory donor.

Kindly keep in mind the worthy mission of your Orange County Scottish Rite when paying your annual dues and/or when planning your estate. You will be contributing to your, and your Valley's legacy.

Kind fraternal regards,

David Price 32° KCCH

Brethren:

June was a busy month in our Valley. We had a superb Cap & Ring ceremony immediately after our June Stated Meeting. Hearty thanks to our Master of Kadosh, Brother Jeff Kimble 32°, who was in charge of this event. Among others, the following Brothers worked on the event: PR Frankie Rosario 32° KCCH, Venerable Master Mike Gowder 32° KCCH, Shawn Smith 32° KCCH, James Cervantes 32°, Stuart Meador 32° KCCH (photographer) and Andrew Todd 32° (video). We were fortunate that SGIG Frank Loui 33° and Mrs. Jeannie Loui were in attendance.

Our annual audit for the Valley was conducted in June. It was well led by Ill. Bob Hjorth 33°. He was ably assisted by the following members of the audit committee: Bro. David Frias 32°, Hon. Shawn Smith 32° KCCH & Bro. Jamie Hopkins 32°. All went well and we are in good shape.

Please consider joining our Century Club. Membership is a $100 donation and all of the proceeds go to support our Valley office. All of the Brothers who work at our Santa Ana office are volunteers. So, your donation will be well spent for rent, office supplies, postage, etc. I would like to thank Ill. Lloyd Clayton 33° and Brother Russ Albright 32° for their hard work at our office. Illustrious Clayton 33° attended the 75th reunion of the D-Day invasion in France in June. Our Brother was a young sailor serving aboard a Royal Canadian Navy vessel participating in the landing at Juno Beach. Illustrious Clayton 33° was recognized for his service at the Canadian Commemoration Ceremony in France. We are all grateful to our Brother for his service.

Please continue to inform your Blue Lodge Brothers about the advantages of membership in the Orange County Scottish Rite. Let them know about the unique opportunities for more light in Masonry through participation in ritual, speaker series and the Master Craftsmen programs. Equally important, our Valley supports an outstanding Childhood Language Center in Santa Ana.

Have a good Fourth of July!

Fraternally,

Jamie Hopkins 32°

Venerable Master

Fraternal Greetings,

Summer has arrived and the spirit of independence is in the air. As we celebrate the 243rd anniversary of our great Republic, let us also celebrate those great freedoms we enjoy as Americans. Let us join in thanks for our freedom of free thought, expression and religion and our acceptance of diversity. Let us also bestow our gratitude to those brave men and women who have fought to protect those freedoms. What a great country we live in.

With these rights and freedoms comes responsibility. As Masons, and more particularly, as Scottish Rite Masons, we have an obligation to make this world a better place. We are, after all, soldiers of the light. I am encouraging each of you to make a difference this month in some way. It can be small or big. Make a gesture of goodwill that will make someone's day brighter. It doesn't have to be financial. Maybe you can make a phone call to a family member, friend or even brother mason who you have not spoken to in a while? Perhaps you can help with the Childhood Language Center?

Additionally, I am challenging to improve yourself in some way too. Read that book you haven't started, exercise a little more and eat better. As our Illustrious Brother, Manly Hall said, it is the desire of our creator that we be wise. Challenge yourselves, my brothers, so we can make tomorrow better than today.

Fraternally,

Mike Gowder, 32°, KCCH

"You get out of Masonry what you put into it..."

How many times have we all heard that? How many times have we told new Masons in our Blue Lodges and Scottish Rite the same thing? What does it mean to you? How do you practice your Masonry? I find the adage that if you ask 15 Masons the same question, you'll get 15 different answers. One of the things that drew me into the path of service was becoming a Candidate Coach at Orange Grove, my first candidate was Wes Green, who now serves on multiple degree teams with me. My last was our current Wise Master, Shaun McCuen.

Which brings me to my point. During our reunions, we often have new candidates that go through, and after the experience is over, there's usually no one there to reinforce the lessons they just learned. What if we change that? Who among us would consider mentoring a new Scottish Rite Mason? Who knows, maybe we'll learn new things as part of the process, deepening our knowledge and appreciation of what we are and why we do what we do as Scottish Rite Masons! Give it some thought, it's just an idea, but it is a call to action for all of us as we work to continually improve ourselves as Men and Masons.

Dear Brethren,

Already more than halfway through the year, how time has flown by. Last month we had a very nice Cap & Ring ceremony. It was an honor to have Mr. & Mrs. Most Illustrious in attendance. I am of course speaking of Illustrious Frank Louie 33° & his lovely wife. Frank always has such a kind demeanor about him, that really gets me excited about Scottish Rite Masonry. During the Stated meeting he put forth an interesting suggestion. Putting out surveys to the members via mail in order to get a better grasp on what the Brothers would like to see the Valley participate in. That in itself is a very productive and reasonable suggestion. I would like to encourage more brothers to attend Stated meeting in order to get your personal direct feedback. After all, that is a large part of the purpose of a Stated. Please come to the meeting and put forth any ideas you may have in regards to making a more active, stronger, and all around exciting Valley. To all members I would say, the only bad ideas are the ones never presented. I would also like to thank and recognize Brother Andrew Todd on his hard work in securing speakers, Website, and internet work, as well as the Master Craftsman program coming up. Great job Brother. What an absolute champion. The more Members we have attending Stated meetings and whom feel comfortable voicing their opinions, the more vibrant and colorful our Valley will be.

Greetings Brethren,

July is a special time of the year, we celebrate the birth of our country on July 4th and this year also marks the 50th anniversary of landing on the Moon on July 20th. “That afternoon in mid-July, two pilgrims watched from distant space. The moon ballooning in the sky. They rose to meet it face-to-face. Their spidery spaceship, Eagle, dropped down gently on the lunar sand. And when the module's engines stopped, rapt silence fell across the land. The first man down the ladder, Neil, Spoke words that we remember now— “One small step...” It made us feel as if we were there too, somehow. When Neil planted the flag and Buzz collected lunar rocks and dust, They hopped like kangaroos because of gravity. Or wanderlust? A quarter million miles away, one small blue planet watched in awe. And no one who was there that day, will soon forget the sight they saw.” -J. Patrick Lewis “First Men on the Moon”

I would also like to take this time to thank all of those people who were involved and attended the Cap and Ring ceremony at the June stated meeting. The next reunion class is scheduled for October 25 and 26. The next Cap and Ring ceremony will be at the December stated meeting.

Director of Masonic Education

Hello Brothers,

Just a friendly reminder that our first Master Craftsman Study Group is being held prior to the July 1st Stated Meeting at 5:30pm. This is your opportunity to enhance your understanding of the Craft, its degrees, and esoterica; and a chance to participate in true Masonic scholarship with your brothers. Brother James Cervantes has graciously volunteered to lead the activities and guide us on our path.

If you'd like to attend, please prepare by visiting the website for information about the books and other information to get you started:

I would just like to touch on this topic of the Knights of St. Andrew (KSA). For those brothers who do not know what the KSA is or does. The KSA does the little things around the valley from cleaning up after stated meetings to helping at Reunion classes to just overall service to the Valley. Brother Frias was elected as our First Knight. I am the Secretary of the Knights, so I would just like to extend a warm welcome to those brothers who may be interested or would like to return. Please feel free to reach out to me or Brother Frias about how to become a member or how to get involved again and we can provide further details or answers to any questions, you may present to us. I will be mentioning this message on the KSA each month.

“If you want to do something significant, something noble, something that perhaps has never been done before, you must be willing to fail. And don't be surprised or devastated when you do. It is not the end of the world, and untold numbers of people have experienced major failures and have come back from them, not only as more successful, but also as better, stronger people.” - Illustrious Edwin “Buzz” Aldrin, 33°.

Language Center News

Hello from the OC Childhood Language Center.

This has been the best summer semester yet at the Orange County Childhood Language Center. The schedule of therapy sessions has been completely full, and we have had many success stories.

Our “dinosaur-loving boy” came to us with very little vocabulary, and limited speaking abilities using only one word at a time. Melanie read a repetitive book about dinos with him until he mastered it and could take it home. He is now able to create 2-3 word sentences!

These girls each came with mild articulation delays at about the same time during the spring semester. We decided to group them together during the therapy sessions which provided great results. They had so much fun working together which helped to keep them motivated. In a matter of months, they both graduated from speech therapy and are now strong communicators!

This first grader started at CLC as a preschooler, almost 3 years ago. When he began, he had a very severe speech sound disorder, which can often result in reading and spelling delays. As a result of his hard work and, with the help of his CLC interns, he has managed to correct all of his speech sounds and is reading and spelling above grade level – we are so proud of him!

Save the Date!

Saturday September 7 is the date for the Gala Fundraising Dinner to benefit the Orange County Childhood Language Center. This year we have selected the Highway 39 Event Venue in Anaheim with its classic car collection to host our event. We are looking forward to seeing everyone there. Book now at

This jewel denotes the Thirty-second Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. There is abundant internal evidence, derived from the ritual and from historical facts, the Degree of Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret was instituted by the founders of the Council of Emperors of the East and West, which Body was established in the year 1758. It is certain that before that period we hear nothing of of such a Degree in any of the Rites. The Rite of Heredom or of Perfection, which was that instituted by the Council of Emperors, consisted of twenty-five Degrees. Of these the Twenty-fifth, and highest, was the Prince of the Royal Secret. It was brought to America by Morin, as the summit of the High Masonry which he introduced, and for the propagation of which he had received his Patent. In the subsequent extension of the Scottish Rite about the beginning of the nineteenth century, by the addition of eight new Degrees to the original twenty-five, the Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret became the Thirty-second. Bodies of the Thirty-second Degree are called Consistories, and where there is a superintending Body erected by the Supreme Council for the government of the inferior Degrees in a State or Province, it is called a Grand Consistory. The clothing of a Sublime Prince consists of a collar, jewel and apron. The collar is black edged with white. The jewel is a Teutonic cross of gold. The apron is white edged with black. On the flap are embroidered six flags, three on each side of the staffs in saltier, and the flags blue, red and yellow. On the center of the flap, over these, is a Teutonic cross surmounted by an All-Seeing Eye, and on the cross a double-headed eagle not crowned. On the body of the apron is the tracing-board of the Degree. The most important part of the symbolism of the Degree is the tracing-board, which is technically called the Camp. This is a symbol of deep importance, and in its true interpretation is found that "Royal Secret" from which the Degree derives its name. This Camp constitutes an essential part of the furniture of a Consistory during an initiation, but its explanations are altogether esoteric. It is a singular fact, that notwithstanding the changes which the Degree must have undergone in being transferred from the Twenty-fifth of one Rite to the Thirty-second of another, no alteration was ever made in the Camp, which retains at the present day the same form and signification that were originally given to it. The motto of the Degree is Spes mea in Deo est, that is, My hope is in God.

Master Craftsman Program

SCOTTISH+RITE MASTER+CRAFTSMAN

The Scottish Rite Master Craftsman (SRMC) program is an exciting, by-mail correspondence course designed and administered by staff at the House of the Temple in Washington, DC, under the guidance and leadership of the Supreme Council, 33°, of the A&A Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction, USA. Currently, three courses and a Group Studies program constitute the SRMC. While a Scottish Rite, SJ, member may use Group Studies program at any time, the three courses are meant to be taken in the following order:

Program I: The Symbolic Lodge will familiarize students with aspects of the development of Blue Lodge Masonry and explore some of its developing symbolism. This will reveal that the “High Degrees” began to develop soon after formation of the Premier Grand Lodge (1717). Albert Pike’s book, Esoterika: The Symbolism of the Blue Degrees of Freemasonry, along with Arturo de Hoyos’s Scottish Rite Ritual Monitor & Guide (3d ed.) will be used to demonstrate a rational and philosophical interpretation for much of what is found in Craft Masonry.

Program II: Scottish Rite History & Ritual consists of six lessons, utilizing the Scottish Rite Ritual Monitor & Guide by Arturo de Hoyos, 33°, Grand Cross, and A Bridge to Light (4th ed.) by Rex Hutchens, 33°, Grand Cross, as its textbooks.

Program III: Scottish Rite Philosophy uses Albert Pike’s Morals & Dogma, Annotated Edition, by Arturo de Hoyos, 33°, Grand Cross and returns to the ritual of the Scottish Rite to re-explore it on a deeper level, by looking for the moral lesson imparted in each degree and then applying that lesson to one’s everyday life. The course consists of 33 quizzes, grouped into 10 sections.

Upon completion of each course listed above, the participant will be rewarded with a medal or pins to denote multiple completions. The Group Studies program operates differently from the three courses.

The preceding description of the Scottish Rite Master Craftsman course is from the Scottish Rite of Free Masonry Supreme Council 33° Southern Jurisdiction USA website. Contact Brother Andrew Todd, 32° here at OCSR to enroll in this exciting program beginning soon.

Newest Masters of the Royal Secret

Our Spring Reunion class March of 23-24 netted us three new Masters of the Royal Secret. After a busy few months we were able to hold our Cap and Ring Ceremony at our June Stated Meeting where two of those members were in attendance. On the left with his wife Erin is Brother Barry McKinley 32° who comes to us from Orange Grove Lodge #293. On the right standing with Master of Kadosh Jeff Kimble, 32° is Brother James Meador 32° from Huntington Beach Lodge #380 where he is currently serving as Senior Deacon. Thanks to Bro. Stuart Meador, 32° for providing us with these pictures.
