General Secretary

Brethren:

We have now been in our new office for nearly a month. Our new address is: 2001 E. 4th St., Suite 202, Santa Ana, CA. 92705. Our office hours are from 9:30 am to 1:30 pm on Mondays and Thursdays. Also, we have voicemail available on the days we are out. We enjoyed our previous office location for 40 years. The family who were our landlords decided to sell the property. We believe our new location in an office building will better suit the needs of the OCSR.

The dues notices for 2020 are now in the mail. If you haven't yet received yours, you will receive it this month. If you have any questions about your dues status, don't hesitate to call or email us at the office. Our Fall Reunion is coming up on October 25th & 26th. Please keep talking up the Orange County Valley to Master Masons at your Blue Lodges. We have room for more candidates in the Fall class. Finally, the biggest event for the Valley in September is the Distinguished Speaker series immediately after the September 9th Stated Meeting. Past Grand Master R. Stephen Doan will give a superb talk. Please call the office to make your dinner reservations. Have an outstanding September.

Fraternally,

Jamie Hopkins 32°

General Secretary

Greetings Brothers,

Another big thanks to the contributors to our newsletter. Their efforts help make this job of keeping you informed manageable. I encourage everyone to stop by our new location to see all of the hard work our OC Scottish Valley moving team accomplished. Remember to get your reservations into the OCSR Valley office to assist us keeping our dinner expenses under control. Looking forward to seeing everyone at the next Stated Meeting which is on SEPTEMBER 9th!

Please let me know if you or someone you know has an interesting article to include, we need new material. Remember the publication deadline each month is the 15th so let's hear from you authors out there.

Send all submissions to: mshusaac@charter.net.

Venerable Master

Fraternal Greetings,

September gives us the Autumnal Equinox and the change of seasons. The Equinox symbolizes balance. The days and nights are in equilibrium. As masons, we yearn for this same equilibrium. We see that theme so many times in our degrees.

I am so looking forward to hearing our next distinguished speaker, Ill. R. Stephen Doan at our September stated meeting. I am sure his talk on Scottish Rite Masonry will be enlightening to all in attendance. I hope that you all can make it.

I have really been enjoying the new Master Craftsman program that our Education Director, Bro. Andrew Todd is leading. We had a great discussion prior to the August Stated meeting and I can easily say I am learning a lot about the formation of our craft. There is still time to join us. We meet at 5:30 pm prior to the Stated Meeting in the conference room.

I am now entering the third trimester as your Venerable Master. My focus is now shifting towards helping my replacement get his footing for next year.

Please get involved, my brothers, we have so many opportunities.

Fraternally,

Mike Gowder, 32°, KCCH

Brotherly Love, Relief, Truth. One of the first lessons we learn in Masonry and perhaps the most important. The practice of Brotherly Love teaches us to consider all of our human species as one family. Relief, to be of charitable practice to all, particularly our Brethren in Freemasonry regardless of rank or distinction. Truth, that divine attribute that teaches us to conduct ourselves with upright moral conduct that should dissuade us from any false or hypocritical conduct toward anyone at any time.

Consider for a moment your own life. Your own conduct. Not only toward your fellow Masons, but to the world at large. Our influence and actions reflect not only on ourselves, but on the Fraternity as a whole. I find sometimes it is important to reflect on the most basic lessons in Freemasonry as well as the more advanced studies we take up in the Scottish Rite. Without those foundational teachings, our Masonic edifice would surely fail and tumble to the ground. Which is why the words "Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth" sit not only above my desk at home, but at my office as well. They are a constant reminder that my reputation as a man, and as a Mason come above all, and that I should value the integrity I've worked so hard to build. How about you? Do you remind yourself of these truly important duties?

Our job as Masons, is to inspire those around us to continually better themselves. To be the best possible versions of themselves that they can possibly be... Mason or not. My admonition to you, as it is to myself, is to remember that in your day-to-day conduct. Now go forth, and practice those noble virtues!

Wise Master

Dear Brothers,

Summer is coming to an end. The days now begin to shorten, and the nights increase in length. Hopefully the daytime temperatures start to decrease as well. We will soon begin the beautiful season of fall. The kiddos return to school; much thanks to the Great Architect for that! The natural colors of our environment begin to morph from bright greens and yellows, to softer tones of orange and brown. With the end of August and the beginning of September comes Labor Day weekend.

If you are a member of Orange Grove Lodge that means one thing...The Orange International Food Street Fair. The Jobs Daughters and Rainbow Girls both have booths, as well as the Segerstrom Family's Child ID Booth. It's an extremely busy weekend and I have had the privilege of working the Rainbow Girl's Funnel Cake Booth for the last 4 years. The girls have been fortunate to come under the guidance of Mrs. Erin McKinley, the spouse of one of our Valley's newest members, Brother Berry McKinley 32°. It is quite possibly the longest, most hard-working weekend of my entire year. By cleanup Sunday night, myself, the girls, and the other adults are absolutely beat. That being said, there isn't much that gives me this type of a closeness to Masonry. By that I mean the entire weekend is full of opportunities to be of service, to enrich the kids' work ethic, and show that they are loved and cared for.

This is the same type of commitment that the Brothers of our Valley have for the Childhood Language Center. I love a good Stated Meeting. I love rituals and degrees. I love rings and funny hats with awesome logos. I find that all of these aspects prepare me to go forth and do what Masonry is really about, and that's good old-fashioned work. Work for our community, work for the kiddos, and work to be an example of what it takes to not just keep the status quo, but to constantly improve one's self and one's community. If any Brother or family member of a Brother is interested in being a part of this amazing weekend full of love and energy. Please contact me at: (714) 335-8941.

Fraternally yours,
Shawn McCuen 32°
 Wise Master.

Master of Kadosh

Greetings Brethren,

Summer is coming to an end, and the Fall is approaching. Lyric night of the lingering Indian Summer, shadowy fields that are scentless but full of singing, never a bird, but the passionless chant of insects, ceaseless, insistent. The grasshopper's horn, and far-off, high in the maples, the wheel of a locust leisurely grinding the silence under a moon waning and worn, broken, tired with summer. Let me remember you, voices of little insects, weeds in the moonlight, fields that are tangled with asters, let me remember, soon will the winter be on us, snow-hushed and heavy. Over my soul murmur your mute benediction, while I gaze, o fields that rest after harvest, as those who part look long in the eyes they lean to, lest they forget them. - Sara Teasdale, "September Midnight"

I would just like to touch on this topic of the Knights of St. Andrew (KSA). For those brothers who do not know what the KSA is or does. The KSA does the little things around the valley from cleaning up after stated meetings to helping at Reunion classes to just overall service to the Valley. Brother Frias was elected as our First Knight. I am the Secretary of the Knights, so I would just like to extend a warm welcome to those brothers who may be interested or would like to return. Please feel free to reach out to me or Brother Frias about how to become a member or how to get involved again and we can provide further details or answers to any questions, you may present to us. I will be mentioning this message on the KSA each month. There will be a tentative Knighting Ceremony in October, the brothers being knighted will be informed of details soon.

Language Center News

Hello from the OC Childhood Language Center.

We are now located at 2001 E. 4th Street, Suite 202, Santa Ana, CA 92705. The move was a huge success. Everyone is very excited about writing this new chapter in our long and successful story of helping the children in Santa Ana become great communicators!

Moving an office after such a long time in one place turned into a very large task. Over the years we have accumulated a lot of extra stuff. The Team did a great job in quickly sorting through all the stuff and getting ready for the move. When the movers arrived we were completely prepared.

sharply at 8:00am on moving day ready to tackle the job. If you need a mover call Mike at 714-241-9560. They worked very hard nonstop until the job was done. Everything was wrapped, even the computers, and arrived safely at the new location.

A Friend of the Club recommended Pearl Moving Company assuring us they would provide a fair price. They arrived

It was bittersweet to leave the French Street property. So many kids and families have received such critical care when they walked through those doors. Plus we all are very fond of the family that owned the house and the feeling was mutual.

Chapman University was on hand on moving day to help coordinate the CLC move. They returned the next day to unpack and organize the office. This new space provides a bunch of new exciting opportunities to improve the operations of the CLC. The new phones are operational and the internet is blazing fast.

Thank you to Honorable Mike Selix for providing all the moving boxes and tape. A Big Thank You to our General Secretary Jamie Hopkins for daring to help clean up the basement. This was beyond the call of duty. Illustrious Lloyd Clayton also deserves our Thanks for all his help. He is a treasure to our Valley! Lastly our PR, Honorable Frankie Rosario was with us all every step of the way helping to pack and coordinate the move for both organizations! He was even in the basement with the Gen Sec sorting through all the old stuff.

Remember to sign up to attend the Annual Give of Voice Gala dinner on September 7th. This will be held at the Highway 39 Event center and will be a fun celebration. Please use the following link to sign up now!

Master of Kadosh (continued from page 6)

“The criers of the Mysteries speak again, bidding all men welcome to the House of Light. The great institution of materiality has failed. The false civilization built by man has turned, and like the monster of Frankenstein, is destroying its creator. Religion wanders aimlessly in the maze of theological speculation. Science batters itself impotently against the barriers of the unknown. Only transcendental philosophy knows the path. Only the illumined reason can carry the understanding part of man upward to the light. Only philosophy can teach man to be born well, to live well, to die well, and in perfect measure be born again. Into this band of the elect--those who have chosen the life of knowledge, of virtue, and of utility--the philosophers of the ages invite YOU.”
